(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To purchase for investment or resale, to traffic in, and to acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description situate in the Province of British Columbia, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situate, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by preparing building-sites, and by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, apartment-houses, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(b.) To manage land, buildings, and other property situate as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants and occupiers, and others, refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, garages, stables, and other advantages:

(c.) To acquire and take over any business or undertaking carried on upon or in connection with any land or buildings which the Company may desire to acquire as aforesaid or become interested in, and the whole or any of the assets and liabilities of such business or undertaking, and to carry on the same, or to dispose of, remove, or put an end thereto, or otherwise deal with the same as may seem expedient:

(d.) To establish and carry on, and to promote the establishment and carrying-on, upon any property in which the Company is interested, of any business which may be conveniently carried on upon or in connection with such property, and the establishment of which may seem calculated to enhance the value of the Company's interest in such property or to facilitate the disposal thereof:

(e.) To advance and lend money to builders, tenants, and others who may be willing to build on or improve any land or buildings in which the Company is interested:

(f.) To invest the funds of the Company in mortgages secured upon real estate situate in the Province of British Columbia:

(g.) To invest the funds of the Company in any investments permitted to life insurance companies by the "Insurance Act" of the Dominion of Canada or by any other Statute which may hereafter be enacted in substitution for the said "Insurance Act":

(h.) To carry on the business of insurance agents in all its branches.

The objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall be deemed to be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

The Company has excluded from its memorandum of association clauses (j) and (k) of subsection (1) of section 22 of the "Companies Act."

To purchase, take on lease or licence, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire timber lands, timber leases, and timber licences, and to construct, erect, maintain, improve, own, purchase, or otherwise acquire, manage, and work buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, engines, steamers, tugs, sidings, waterworks, flumes, dams, piers, wharves, factories, shingle-mills, sawmills, booming-grounds, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to the Company's business, either directly or indirectly, and to contribute to or otherwise aid or take part in such operations or any of them:

(c.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, mortgage, manage, improve, turn to account, dispose of, or otherwise deal in any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges appertaining thereto which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business or otherwise, and in particular any lands, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, tools, and implements, and stock-in-trade:

(d.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake and assume the liabilities of any person, firm, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and as the consideration therefor to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of the Company:

(e.) To lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, firm, or company having dealings with this Company:

(f.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(g.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of mortgages, debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(h.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, mortgages, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(i.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Company:

(j.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(k.) To do all such other things as are or the Company may think are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or which may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or to facilitate the realization of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.
